

April 24, 2016 – “STANDING ALONE: In a World of Compromise” – Pastor Ken Harrell

Daniel 1

Daniel had been ripped away as a teenage boy from the Godly influence of his family and friends, and taken captive to a strange city in a strange land called Babylon. From the get-go he was tempted to compromise everything he had learned, lived and loved from the time he was born.

The strategy used to lure Daniel into a “life of compromise”

1. They immersed him in _____. v1–2
2. They tried to transform his _____.
 - A. They changed his _____. v6–7
 - B. They wanted to change his _____. v3–4

“Education without religion is like the solar system without the sun.”

Charles Haddon Spurgeon

3. They tempted him with _____. v5

“STANDING ALONE: In a World of Compromise”

1. Stand with _____. v8a

Your conviction must be...

- A. Grounded in _____.
- B. Birthed by a _____.

You are the person you are today because of the decisions you made yesterday. The person you will be tomorrow is determined by the decisions you made today.

- B. Characterized by _____.

2. Stand with _____.

- A. There was _____ pressure. v8b,10
- B. There was _____ pressure.
- C. There was _____ pressure.

Note: It is important to see that Daniel not only stood with courage, he stood with _____. v11–13

3. Stand with _____. v14-15,17,20

A conviction I live by

Do what is _____ and leave the _____ to God.
